

People to Watch: Healthcare Professionals Making Their Mark

| Name | Firm | Outstanding Achievements |
|-----------------------|--|--|
| Richard Averill | 3M Health Information Systems Wallingford, CT Tel. (203) 949-0303 | Research director, international authority on patient classification, case mix, quality, and reimbursement methodologies. Principal developer of the DRG and APC classification systems used by Medicare for hospital payment. |
| Suzanne Delbanco | The Leapfrog Group Washington, D.C. Tel. (202) 292-6707 | Founding CEO whose goal is to mobilize employer purchasing power to initiate breakthrough improvements in the safety and overall value of healthcare for American consumers. |
| Stacy Goldsholl, M.D. | Cogent Healthcare Irvine, CA Tel. (949) 399-6000 | National medical director, Cogent Healthcare and owner of Catalyst Inpatient Solutions, a consulting firm she founded in 2002 for hospital medicine program development and education. |
| Jim Grant | National Surgical Hospitals Chicago, IL Tel. (312) 627-8426 | Chief operating officer, founding member of National Surgical Hospitals, founding member and current president of the American Surgical Hospital Association, former president of Quorum Health – Eastern Division. |
| Jim Moloney | Cain Brothers San Francisco, CA Tel. (415) 982-6536 | Instrumental in leading the entire real estate monetization effort in healthcare; has represented major clients, including Baylor Health Care Systems, Sparks Health Systems, and Beth Israel Continuum Health Partners. |
| Mary Pittman, Ph.D | Health Research & Educational Trust Chicago, IL Tel. (312) 422-2622 | President of Health Research & Educational Trust. Member, executive staff of the American Hospital Association. Past president and CEO, California Association of Public Hospitals. |
| Lydia M. Reed | Association of University Programs in Health Administration (AUPHA) Arlington, VA Tel. (703) 894-0940 | President/CEO of an association dedicated to the continuous improvement of the field of healthcare management of education and practice. Named by Modern Healthcare as one of the 100 most powerful people in healthcare. |
| Susan T. Sherry | Community Catalyst Boston, MA Tel. (617) 451-5838 | Founding director of a highly successful consumer health advocacy organization, Health Care for All. Developed state-based technical assistance programs for consumer health advocates. |